MAY 2013

JEWISH ARTS MONTH

This was our biggest and most colorful JAM exhibit to date. Sales varied from week to week. Both MJCC staff and visitors commented frequently about the beautiful displays and the desire to see art more frequently at the J. Some of the artists are already hearing from customers who took business cards!

It's That Time of Year Again! Dues, new members, jury, annual meeting...

DUES ARE DUE!

Dues have been reduced to $50. With an increase in our membership, we decided it was time to reduce the dues.

Dues pay for our annual website fees, honorarium for guest speakers and equipment.

Please bring a check to the June 9th Annual Meeting!

If you plan on selling your art at our Annual Celebration of Art 2013, plan on sending in your $100 booth fee.

This fee helps pay our rent and insurance for the one day event. Any left-over dollars are used for advertising.

NEW MEMBERS?

We hope each of our members will recruit one new member for the coming year. New members only need to jury their work if they plan to show in the Celebration of Art, the ORA Shalom Lobby shows at Neveh Shalom, and/or the Jewish Arts Month Show at the MJCC.

We welcome artists who may not yet be ready to sell or who simply want to be part of an artist community.

Guest Artists may also jury for the Celebration of Art Show (only). The jury fee is $25 which can be applied to their booth rental fee of $125. ORA members do not pay a jury fee!

The jury will meet Sunday morning June 9th. The deadline to submit a jury application is June 1st. Information can be found on our website.
